SAT[®]

 CollegeBoard

Official Test Dates

Students will take the PSAT and SAT
The Week of April 9th & 10th, 2019

Why is the test important? What can we do to help our students prepare?

The Redesigned SAT

The redesigned SAT asks students to apply a deep understanding of the few things shown by current research to matter most for college readiness and success.

This Test is important because it tells colleges if your child is READY to attend and be SUCCESSFUL at their school.

- The better they do the more college options your child will have to apply too
- The more scholarship money that will become available.

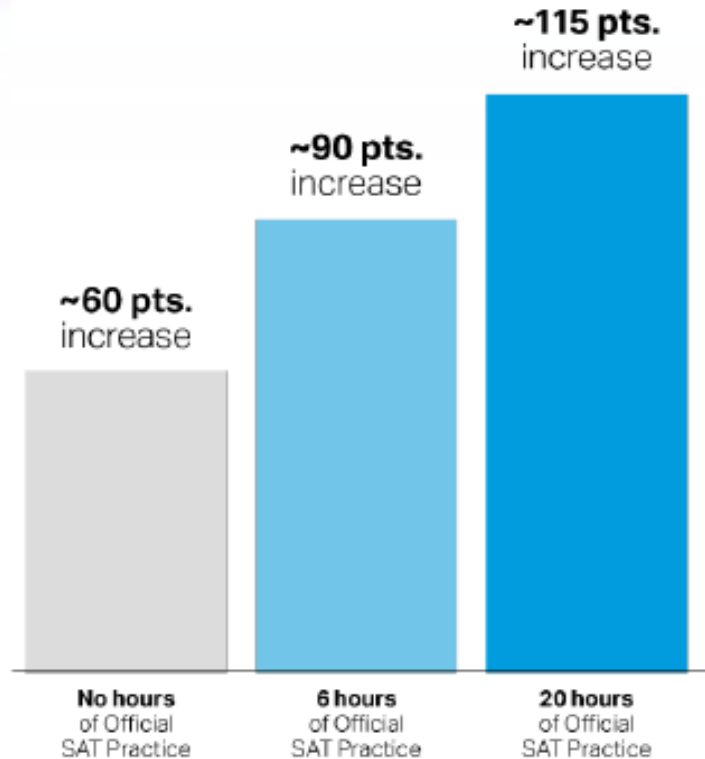

What is a “good” score? - Benchmark Scores

How parents can support their child?

- 1) Ask to see PRIDE reports every other week it gives a great snapshot to your students academics, attendance and GPA
- 2) Make sure your child is coming to school on time every day and meeting class expectations, Attendance is one of the most important factors to your child's success in school
- 3) Look over your child's PSAT report, They just took a practice exam and scores will be coming out in in December, review their scores with your student and discuss strengths and weakness
- 4) Create time at home for your child to work on Khan Academy – a free online support that links to college board and your child's scores and adapts to their strengths and weaknesses
